

Recommended Summer Reading List

If you are looking for books to read this summer in order to be better prepared for class in the fall consider the following:

Monique and the Mango Rains	Kris Holloway
ChildBirth Without Fear	Grantly Dick-Read
Birth Matters	Ina Mae Gaskin
* Half the Sky	Sheryl WuDunn
* Nurturing the Nations	Darrow Miller
* Pushed	Jennifer Block
* Ina Mae's Guide to Childbirth	Ina Mae Gaskin
* The Birth Partner	Penny Simpkin
Birthing From Within	Pam England
Spiritual Midwifery	Ina Mae Gaskin
Laboring On	Barbara Katz Rothman
Birth Crisis	Sheila Kitzinger
Baby Catcher	Peggy Vincent
The Midwife-A Memoir of Birth, Joy and Hart Times	Jennifer Worth
The Birth House	Ami Mckay
A Midwife's Story	Penny Armstrong
Lady's Hands Lion's Heart	Carol Leonard
The Blue Cotton Gown	Patricia Harmon
The Red Tent	Anita Diamant
Labor of Love	Cara Muhlhahn
Catching Babies	Sheena Byrom
* A Child is Born	Lennart Nilsson

Not all books on this list will be used in class, but each are delightful (or challenging) stories that will prime your heart for what is to come. Books with an (*) will be used in class for assignments and/or discussion.